Fact Sheet TVision™ Home

Why TV?
The Un-carrier has already changed wireless for good, and the launch of TVision Home brings T-Mobile one step closer to taking on Big Cable later this year as the Un-carrier brings its disruptive approach – listening to customers and solving their pain points – to cable & satellite TV.

Cable-Free, Box-Free Future
The launch of TVision Home is part of T-Mobile’s 5G strategy and vision to give consumers real choice and competition in the cable industry, and that starts with the Sprint merger. The New T-Mobile will combine the spectrum, sites and assets of T-Mobile and Sprint to deliver our robust, nationwide 5G network, bringing more choice, competition, better service, lower prices and faster speeds right to your living room. And, while TVision Home uses your existing wired broadband today, TVision Home is IPTV designed for a 5G future where wireless broadband can replace home internet.

- Today, almost half of the country’s households (45%), and nearly three quarters of rural households (76%) have no high-speed service (100 Mbps average) or only one option for high-speed broadband.
- But if the merger is approved, by bringing together T-Mobile and Sprint, the New T-Mobile will have the scale and capacity to create a supercharged 5G network capable of reaching over half the country’s households with high-speed broadband by 2024.

Meet TVision Home
TVision Home builds off the innovations in Layer3 TV and delivers a premium TV experience for the 74% of American households still using traditional cable or satellite TV and paying an average of $107.30 per month. TVision Home delivers what customers want most from high-end home TV, with more HD premium channels available than anyone else, and the most 4K channels included at no additional cost. That’s 275+ available channels and over 35,000+ On Demand movies, shows and more, plus on-screen social content, a personalized home screen and DVR for each user, smart speaker voice control with Amazon Alexa or Google Assistant, and even access to your Nest security cameras.

And it remembers more than what you watch…it remembers when you watch it, and where you watch it, serving up your favorite shows based on the hour and location.
- Personalized Experience for the Whole Family: TVision Home boasts a personalized experience for everyone in the house, with an individual DVR, home screen and profile for every user, so you record only the shows you want – multiple programs at once! You get a massive terabyte of storage – that’s 400+ hours of DVR in HD.
- Smart Home Connected with On-screen Social Media: TVision Home is connected to your digital life and your devices. View your Facebook and Twitter profiles, use your voice to control TVision with Amazon Alexa and Google Assistant, and monitor your front door with Nest security cameras, all right from your TV.
- Streaming & Cable Together: TVision Home launches with apps for Pandora, iHeartRadio, XUMO, CuriosityStream, Toon Goggles and HSN. And with an open platform, more apps are coming soon, including Amazon Prime Video, Netflix, YouTube and YouTube Kids! And, T-Mobile will soon release a mobile companion app for IoS and Android, allowing you to stream your TV to your smartphone anywhere in the house.
• BS-Free TV: Because TVision Home is from T-Mobile, there are no hidden fees, no bill creep or exploding offers, no annual service contracts and no crappy customer service. TVision Home customers get a TVision-dedicated customer care team – from the company that ranks #1 in wireless customer service satisfaction year after year.

• One Consistent Price for a Full Channel Lineup: TVision Home launches at $90/month (including a $9.99/month discount for T-Mobile customers… but available to everyone for a limited time) which includes 150+ channels, local broadcast, regional sports and more. Plus $10/month per connected TV, including your whole-home DVR for a limited time. Any premium TV packages – like HBO, Showtime and others – or on-demand rentals and purchases are extra.
