

T-Mobile For Business MARKETPLACE

Jamf

Your company uses Apple devices. Set up, manage and protect your corporate devices in minutes with a simple and easy to use mobile device management (MDM) solution.

Keep data on your devices protected

Jamf Now, available through the T-Mobile for Business Marketplace, is a cloud-based mobile device management solution that helps you manage and control devices used in the workplace, with no IT required.

Get started quickly

Automatic device enrollment, email setup, and Wi-Fi settings eliminates manual configurations and time spent at setup.

Help secure your devices

Keep your company data safe with passcodes and the ability to remotely lock or wipe lost and stolen devices from virtually anywhere.

Keep track of settings

Easily access device setting details and status reports.

Distribute apps to your workforce

Use Apple Business Manager to push App Store and custom apps to your workforce.

T-Mobile for Business Marketplace offers mobile device management that helps you take control, secure, and manage your organization's Apple devices. The best part: our Marketplace team will help you get started and provides 24/7 support for these business-critical solutions at T-mobile.com/business/solutions/marketplace.
